

Darold Eugene "Buster" Berhow was born on December 15, 1926 at Ledyard, Iowa to Justin W. and Jeneveive Cassem Berhow. Buster was educated in country and public schools in the Ledyard -Elmore area. September 6, 1950, he was married to Lois Burt at the Trinity Lutheran Church parsonage in Algona, Iowa. He entered the Armed Forces in September 1950, spending two years in the Army Military Police Training in North Carolina and Kentucky, later stationed at Redstone Arsenal in Alabama. Upon his discharge, he returned to Kossuth County, Iowa and farmed. He was a farm hand, carpenter and painter. On June 1, 1975, Buster and Lois moved to Algona where he was custodian for Algona Community Schools, retiring in 1993.

Buster enjoyed woodworking and camping but God, family and home were his real joys.

Buster was a member of First Lutheran Church in Algona, where he served many years on the property committee and helping with Bible school projects.

Buster died on Tuesday night, January 8, 2002 at his home in Algona at the age of 75.

Survivors include his wife Lois of Algona; daughter Charolotte and husband Craig Williams of Montour, Iowa; son Bruce and wife Nancy Berhow of Huber Heights, Ohio; son Mark Berhow of Algona, Iowa; foster daughter Valerie De Boom of Rodman, Iowa; nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Also surviving is Busters twin brother Donnis "Bud" Berhow of Albert Lea, Minnesota; sister Mildred Heiderscheidt of Grimes, Iowa and a brother Roger of Des Moines, Iowa as well as numerous other relatives and friends.

Buster was preceded in death by his parents and one sister Darlene Knedler.

IN MEMORY

DAROLD "BUSTER" BERHOW

BORN

December 15, 1926 – Ledyard, Iowa

DIED

January 8, 2002 – Algona, Iowa

SERVICES HELD

First Lutheran Church
Algona, Iowa

Friday, January 11, 2002 11:00 A.M.

OFFICIATING

Rev. Dr. Mark E. Holmer

MUSIC

Organist – Kristie Brown

Congregational Singing:

"What A Friend We Have In Jesus"

"How Great Thou Art"

Soloist – Pastor Mark Holmer

"The Old Rugged Cross"

"The Lord's Prayer"

CASKETBEARERS

Craig Knedler Michael Heiderscheidt

Mark Runge Brian Robison

Robert Burt Tom Gruis

INTERMENT

Riverview Cemetery
Algona, Iowa

Flag Presentation By:

V.F.W. Post # 2541

American Legion: Hagg-Turner Post #90

Algona, Iowa